

Wednesday 5 December

Wednesday 8:30-9:15, Mihi whakatau and Welcome

Location: Papa Hou

Wednesday 9:15-10:30, Plenary panel – Disaster, Disruption and Renewal

Location: Papa Hou

Chair: Rita Dionisio

Panellists:

- Robyn Wallace
- Sacha McMeeking
- Deirdre Hart
- Mark Wilson

Wednesday 11:00-12:30, Volunteering in the Development Space

Location: Papa Hou

Chair: Gauri Nandedkar and Eleanor Tuck

Wednesday 11:00-12:30, SDGs Policy and Practice

Location: Recital Room

Chair: Edward Challies

11:00	Boardman, M	What's quality got to do with it?
11:18	Bell, S	Achieving the Sustainable Development Goals in conflict-affected contexts: Hopeful possibilities in the partnership between an international non-governmental organisation and a non-state armed group in Myanmar
11:36	Challies, E	Development cooperation and environmental policy mobility: Integrated Water Resource Management and the Pacific
11:54
12:12

Wednesday 11:00-12:30, Student session 1

Location: Camerata Room

Chair: Doug Hill

11:00	Underwood, G; Hill, D	Energy resilience in Nepal: Response and future directions for Nepal after the 2015 earthquakes and blockade
11:10	Lutuli, N	Mobile applications as a tool for participatory extension: A case study of the Lima farmer support application
11:20	Ncube, X	Traditional knowledge integration in water governance and its implications for rural livelihoods in Esigodini, Zimbabwe
11:30	Bronnimann, K	Wakabout long pawa: The Bougainville Community Government Act
11:40	Okoroji, VC; Lees, N; Lucock, S	Farmers' use of mobile phone applications in Abia State, Nigeria
11:50	Setsoafia, ED; Renwick, A; Lyne, M; Wanglin, M	Effects of sustainable agricultural practices (SAPs) on household income and food security of smallholder famers in northern Ghana

12:00	Nguyen, K	Factors enabling and constraining sustainable water resources management: Multi-level water governance in Dong Thap Muoi, Vietnam
12:10	Faisal, A; Hoque, MA; Rahman, MS-U	Crisis of belongings and resilience of host community: Tale of a disrupted visitor economy
12:20

Wednesday 11:00-12:30, Disability Inclusive Humanitarian Response: Best Practices and Practical Lessons Learnt during Response to Rohingya Crisis in Cox's Bazar

Location: The Gym

Chair: Linabel Hadlee

Wednesday 13:30-15:00, Disasters Risk and Resilience

Location: Papa Hou

Chair: Alison Loveridge

13:30	Khan, M; Loveridge, A	Disaster and women: The changing position of women in coastal Bangladesh
13:48	Haryani, R	Tripakarti Utama: Redefining women's participation in leadership on disaster preparedness and response in ASEAN. Case studies: Indonesia and the Philippines
14:06	Banfield, A	When 'Acts of God' Strike: Faith responses and leadership in Vanuatu natural disasters
14:24	Butcher, S	Power, worldview and climate change adaptation programs in the Solomon Islands
14:42

Wednesday 13:30-15:00, The 'Tensions', regional intervention, and Solomon Islands-owned policing: Learning lessons

Location: Recital Room

Chair: Pete Zwart

Wednesday 13:30-15:00, Student session 2

Location: Camerata Room

Chair: Pascale Hatcher

13:30	Vickers, N	Drifting into debt? Voices of the salaried poor in Bangladesh
13:40	Patel, N	What works? Male advocacy in post-conflict Bougainville
13:50	Kretschmar, K	Moving forward: Challenges and opportunities for women in accessing higher education in Fiji
14:00	Ripley, P	Disruption and resettlement: Refugee youth and health needs in New Zealand
14:10	Samwini, CJB; Lyne, MC; Lucock, S; Rich, K	An impact assessment of the Millennium Villages in Ghana
14:20	Williams, EG	The provision of WASH resources in a post disaster environment: The Nepalese earthquake
14:30	Hoque, MA; Lovelock, B; Carr, A	Intrusion into indigenous privacy: When a dream becomes a disruption!
14:40	Wilkins, B; Hill, D	Integrating scientific and qualitative methods to understand changes in water quality in the Jhikhu Khola catchment, Nepal
14:50

Wednesday 13:30-15:00, Themed session: Humanitarians of Aotearoa New Zealand Past and Present

Location: The Gym

Chair: Jesse Hession Grayman

13:30	Water, T	Humanitarian identity and a politics of life: Moral quandaries between an ideal and real world of humanitarian practice
13:48	Hanna, D	Professional tensions among New Zealand humanitarians responding to Nepal's 2015 Gorkha earthquakes
14:06	Bradshaw, S	Personal experiences of (not) being humanitarian (enough): Voices from Europe
14:24	Fountain, P	Religion and the narration of Kiwi humanitarianism during the twentieth century
14:42

Wednesday 15:30-16:25, Tourism: Tensions and Transformations

Location: Papa Hou

Chair: Michael Lyne

15:30	van der Watt, H	'Better lives for all?' The contribution of marine wildlife tourism to development in Gansbaai, South Africa
15:48	Laeis, G	You can't touch those burgers! How chefs negotiate local food supply and guest expectations in upmarket resorts in Fiji
16:06

Wednesday 15:30-16:25, The Politics of Land Access: Livelihood and Land Rights

Location: Recital Room

Chair: Nazmun Ratna

15:30	Kiddle, L; Brass, P	My-field or minefield? Lived experiences of communal land titling in north-eastern Cambodia
15:48	Nnaji, AP; Ratna, N; Renwick, A	Gendered access to land and food security: Evidence from Nigeria
16:06

Wednesday 15:30-16:25, Student session 3

Location: Camerata Room

Chair: Alison Loveridge

15:30	Sajow, HS; Water, T; Holroyd, E	From disruption to [in the making of] the renewal of lives: Efforts to integrate maternal and reproductive health [MRH] into disaster risk management [DRM]
15:40	Finlay, L	Fostering a new approach: How alternative care models in Greece are meeting unaccompanied minors' rights
15:50	Aboah, J; Wilson, MMJ; Rich, KM; Lyne, M	Upstream vulnerabilities and non-linear cascading failures in tropical commodity chains: The case of Ghana's cocoa industry
16:00	Thapa, ET	The role of international development organisations in education development in Nepal: A case study of Nepal and New Zealand

16:10	Lorkuangming, V	Reality on the ground: Exploring the role of men in family planning among Mangkong ethnic couples in Nong District, Savannakhet Province, Lao PDR
16:20

Wednesday 15:30-16:25, Themed session: Humanitarians of Aotearoa New Zealand Past and Present

Location: The Gym

Chair: Philip Fountain

15:30	Thomas, P	Disruption and renewal in Samoan health services: The role of NZ humanitarians
15:48	Grayman, JH	Auckland's humanitarians in waiting among its Southeast Asian communities
16:06

Wednesday 16:30-17:30, Plenary – Manuhuia Barcham: Overcoming the Hubris of 'Design for Development': Small 'd' design meets small 'd' development

Location: Papa Hou

Chair: Steven Ratuva

Wednesday 17:30-19:30, Conference Reception

Location: The Gym

Thursday 6 December

Thursday 8.30-10:00, Disrupting Disruption: A Progressive Reimagining of a Conservative Concept

Location: Papa Hou

Chair: Joanna Spratt and Angela Wilton

Thursday 8.30-10:00, Themed session: Selling Ethics: Is Ethical Certification Driving Ethical Development

Location: Recital Room

Chair: Pete Williams and Kelle Howson

8:30	Williams, P; Murray, W	A critical exploration of the development outcomes of two ethical value networks embedded in Chilean and Peruvian viticulture
8:48	Bidwell, S	Cultivating what is ours: Development with identity and local agro-food heritage in the Peruvian Andes
9:06	Lochner, KA; Hartatri, D	Co-operatives for change? A case study of coffee co-operatives from the Gayo Highlands, Indonesia
9:24	Maria del Nunez-Solis, M; Rosin, C; Ratna, N	Coffee certifications and inclusive development for micro mill owners: Evidence from Costa Rica's Tarrazu region
9:42

Thursday 8.30-10:00, Faith-based Organisations and the Politics of Development

Location: Camerata Room

Chair: Rachel Tallon

8:30	11:00	Tallon, R	Taking a stand: The New Zealand Baptist Union and West Papua
8:48	11:18	Doorey, JS	Faith in development: What difference does faith make for Christian NGOs working in Bangladesh, a Muslim majority country
9:06	11:36	Hamlin, S	Can churches lead to better national outcomes? A PNG example
9:24	11:54	Lewthwaite, W	Connecting the parties
9:42	12:12	Tennent, D	Destruction and restoration

Thursday 8.30-10:00, Themed session: Teaching Development: Challenges and Responses

Location: The Gym

Chair: Sharon McLennan

8:30	McLennan, SJ	Teaching development in Aotearoa New Zealand: Origins and futures
8:48	Leonard, S	Towards an integrated teaching and learning strategy for education for sustainable development
9:06	Stewart-Withers, R; Leslie, H; Bell, S	Values-based, ethically informed and practice-orientated pedagogy in development studies: Exploring competencies in development studies teaching
9:24	Robie, D; Marbrook, J	Bearing witness 2018: A climate crisis journalism development project
9:42	Huish, R	Dissent 101: The ethics of teaching activism and experiential learning in international development studies

Thursday 10:30-11:25, Careers Outside Academia

Location: Papa Hou

Chair: Helen Leslie

Thursday 10:30-11:25, Themed session: Selling Ethics: Is Ethical Certification Driving Ethical Development

Location: Recital Room

Chair: Pete Williams and Kelle Howson

10:30	Musuku, H	Fairtrade certification and the Pacific: A voyage of discovery
10:48	Miles, M; White, G	Renewal for small producers through fair trade supply chains: Facilitating private sector engagement for development on a global scale
11:06	Howson, K; Murray, WE	Ethical certification and ethical development in the South African wine industry

Thursday 10:30-11:25, Health, Wellbeing and Development

Location: Camerata Room

Chair: Gerard Prinsen

10:30	Bateman, J; Binns, T	Livelihood disruption and renewal during the West African Ebola epidemic: Reflections from rural Sierra Leone
10:48	Prinsen, G; Baker, M; Harrison, S; Priest, P	Border closure as pandemic response policy. Are islands anchored to UN guidelines or sailing away?
11:06

Thursday 11:30-12:30, Plenary – Fiona Miller: Tracing the Geographies of Displacement and Loss in an Era of Climate Change

Location: Papa Hou

Chair: Katharine McKinnon

Thursday 13:30-15:00, Themed session: A Politics of Critique and Hope: Towards a Development that Works

Location: Papa Hou

Chair: Regina Scheyvens

13:30	Dhar, A	Praxis in world of the third contexts: Beyond third worldism and development studies
13:48	McKinnon, K; Healy, S; Dombroski, K	Surviving well together: Feminist postdevelopment practices for care
14:06	Klein, E; Morreo, CE	Postdevelopment in practice
14:24	Beban, A	A hopeful development between cruel optimism and cynical pessimism
14:42	Finlayson, C; Wilton, A	Countering the transactional: Putting a focus on relationships at Oxfam New Zealand

Thursday 13:30-15:00, Themed session: Moving Paradigms: Dance and Social Transformation in the South Pacific

Location: Recital Room

Chair: Kristie Mortimer

13:30	Mortimer, K	Blenheim: Dance ghettos or gated communities
13:48	Faik-Simet, N	Exploring Buai and creativity
14:06	Klein, C	Malie in the Studio: Malie and mafana in students' experiences of NZ tertiary choreography education
14:24	Ofamo'oni, J	Wayfinding tertiary dance as a young Pasifika man
14:42

Thursday 13:30-15:00, Power, Survival and Development

Location: Camerata Room

Chair: Hamish Rennie

13:30	Hudson-Rodd, N	Rohingya genocide
13:48	Walls, M	Political disruption and renewal in Somaliland: Transition from a discursive politics to electoral representation
14:06	Matevosyan, A	Why is decentralization not always participation? The case of Lanyang River Mouth Water Bird Wildlife Refuge in Taiwan
14:24	Rennie, HG; Roberts, L; Silwal, P; Gurung, R	Local adaptation planning for climate change resilience – a Nepal/New Zealand comparison
14:42

Thursday 13:30-15:00, Themed session: Disruptive Politics of Resource Extraction: Pathways to Renewal in Extractive Industries and Development

Location: The Gym

Chair: Anthony Bebbington

13:30	Hatcher, P; Lander, J	Disruptively strategic: An analysis of the strategic deployment of indigenous rights claims by Mongolian pastoralists
13:48	Bebbington, AJ	Extractivism, forests and community rights in Latin America and Indonesia: Socio-environmental grant-making and disruptive politics
14:06	Humphreys Bebbington, D; Verdum, R; Gamboa, C	The infrastructure-extractives resource governance complex in the pan Amazon
14:24	Jarvela, J	Politics of responsibility - states, CSR and mining conflicts
14:42	Banks, G	Pigs, politics and petroleum: Disruptive politics and disjunctures in Papua New Guinea's extractive sector

Thursday 15:30-17:00, Themed session: A Politics of Critique and Hope: Towards a Development that Works

Location: Papa Hou

Chair: Regina Scheyvens

15:30	McLennan, SJ; Huish, R	Cuba in the Pacific: Solidarity, sustainability and transformation
15:48	Newport, C	Vaka Moana as policy space - disrupting conventional narratives of oceanic island state development and climate change mobility
16:06	Huong Thi, D; Dombroski, K	The affect of effect: Using local embodied knowledge in monitoring and evaluation of climate change adaptation interventions
16:24	Slade, N	Refugees welcome: Exploring discourses of solidarity, welcome and refugee representation in New Zealand
16:42

Thursday 15:30-17:00, Urban Challenges

Location: Recital Room

Chair: Doug Hill

15:30	Liu, A	Life transitioning of young adults and the county town: Reflecting on the rural-urban binary
15:48	Waliuzzaman, S; Dombroski, K	A social network analysis of urban spaces: A study of the slum dwellers' daily activity places in Dhaka, Bangladesh
16:06	Bradshaw, S; Linneker, B	'Natural' disasters: Disruption or renewal of everyday life in the city?
16:24	Hill, D; Seymour, M	Building urban resilience in India: The promise and failings of the Smart Cities Mission in Guwahati
16:42	Ahmed, W; Imran, M; Scheyvens, R	Women's everyday travel experiences in the cities of Islamabad and Rawalpindi, Pakistan

Thursday 15:30-17:00, Evidence to Action: Perspectives on Challenges and Opportunities for Monitoring and Evaluation

Location: Camerata Room

Chair: James McIlraith

Thursday 18:30-21:00, Conference dinner

Location: The Gym

Friday 7 December

Friday 9:00-10:30, Themed session: The land has eyes and teeth, and also heart and spirit: economic development on customary land in the Pacific

Location: Papa Hou

Chair: Litea Meo-Sewabu

9:00	Banks, G; Meo-Sewabu, L; Scheyvens, R	Beyond customary land as a barrier to economic development: Valuing 'bisnis' on customary land in the Pacific
9:18	Scheyvens, R; Meo-Sewabu, L; Banks, G	Indigenous entrepreneurship on customary land in the Pacific: Measuring sustainability
9:36	Vunibola, S	"Na i kanakana nodra na tukaqu au bula kina" (my ancestors' land to feed from and to help me survive) customary land and economic development: Case studies from Fiji
9:54	Steven, H	Role of women in successful businesses based on customary land: Case studies from Papua New Guinea
10:12	Rice, S	Understanding how indigenous entrepreneurs use diverse blended customary and modern strategies for creating viable enterprise development

Friday 9:00-10:30, Gender and Wellbeing

Location: Recital Room

Chair: Tracy Rogers

9:00	Harris, MJ	Breast is best: The feminist battleground of parenting
9:18	Raven, B; Stewart-Withers, R	Pregnant women and malnutrition in Aotearoa: How Sustainable Development Goals 2 & 5 reframe the current discourse
9:36	Hill, A; Tebao, A	Increasing vasectomy uptake in Kiribati: Learning from practice
9:54	Hill, A; Tebao, A	From 'women's business' to 'men's business': Exploring connections between vasectomy acceptance and equitable gender relations in South Tarawa, Kiribati
10:12	Rogers, T; Stewart-Withers, R	Brothers influencing sisters' development outcomes: Exploring caring masculinities in Cambodia and Samoa

Friday 9:00-10:30, How will New Zealand Respond to Pacific Climate Change Migration?

Location: Camerata Room

Chair: Nathan Ross

Friday 11:00-12:30, Plenary panel – Disruptive Daughters: Using Critical Theory to Rethink Gender and Development Practice

Location: Papa Hou

Chair: Rochelle Stewart-Withers

Panelists:

- Yvonne Underhill-Sem
- Litea Meo-Sewabu

- Katharine McKinnon
- Ririn Haryani

Friday 12:30-13:30, Lunch time forum

Location: Papa Hou

Chair: Regina Scheyvens

Friday 13:30-15:00, Themed session: The land has eyes and teeth, and also heart and spirit: economic development on customary land in the Pacific

Location: Papa Hou

Chair: Litea Meo-Sewabu

13:30	Koczberski, G; Curry, G N; Sengere, R; Inu, SM	Informal land rentals and women entrepreneurs: A case study from the Eastern Highlands of Papua New Guinea
13:48	Curry, G; Germis, E; Koczberski, G	The changing moral economy of land transactions on customary land for small-scale agricultural development: An example from Papua New Guinea
14:06	Roughan, P; Conning, F, France, M	The Tina river experience – power only through partnership
14:24	Schwarz, A-M; Roughan, P; Lasi, F; Talifilu, C	Mobilising land for the blue economy: Evolving practice in Solomon Islands
14:42	Drake, L	Spatial patterns and processes that connect customary land with urban wellbeing in Port Vila and Ambae Island, Vanuatu

Friday 13:30-15:00 Children's Rights, Communities and Good Practices

Location: Recital Room

Chair: Andrew Johnston

13:30	Duojie, C	Bilingual education in Khri Ka County - a case study of Khri Ka Nationalities Boarding School
13:48	Guiney, T	Development that doesn't work: Orphanage tourism
14:06	Hamilton, H	Meaningful measures: De-facing power in Dhaka's slums
14:24	Prescott, D; Kozu, S; Fadgen, T	Where are the children under a state custody during a natural disaster?
14:42	Johnston, A; Kanokngamwitroj, R	Saving children, while being safe for children

Friday 15:30-16:45, Growing the Creative Tension Between Policy and Research/Renewing NZ Aid

Location: Papa Hou

Chair: Pete Zwart

Friday 15:30-16:45, Themed session: The Land has Eyes and Teeth - Talanoa

Location: Recital Room

Chair: Litea Meo-Sewabu

Friday 16:45-17:00, Conference close

Location: Papa Hou
Chair: Pascale Hatcher
